

Fallen Angel

Uriah Heep

Fallen angel Everyone I see reminds me of you
I keep turnin' round
Expectin' you to be there
I keep seein' our past
Through my looking glass
But fallen angel
Where are you now After all these years
I remember the tears
When we parted you said
Don't forget me
You were ridin' so high
Now they're passin' you by
Girl I've never forgot you
Please come and get me Livin' without you is Hard enough anyway
But knowin' you're hurtin'
Makes it so much worse every day I just wanna love you
Any way that I can
And watching you cry wasn't
Part of my plan Tell me how did it feel
In your promised land
That you chose as
Your pain and your pleasure
A temporary sanctuary
Oh fallen angel
I'm your real treasure
