The World to Lose

CodeName: Rocky

When all times have gone,
Its times like this that make life just fall apart.
I've lost all my courage and who is to blame?
The world to lose and little gain, to gain;
I've counted my blessings enough to start.
I followed them later till the end of the block.
It's hard to imagine that someone like you.
You stretched out your hand and told me the truth.You think I care what others say.
The more they talk, the more they fade.
Cause you and me are forever.I don't want it. I don't need it.
When words can't express what I'm saying
I don't want it. I don't need it.
Like time ticks away, I can't feel it.When all the times have gone,
Friends were close and moving on was hard.
It seems there is nothing I can do to change
A scene that is moving in different ways.
