

Cold Sweat

Band of Skulls

What's the point of fame if it's been abused?

What's a kid like me even got to lose?

Here I am on your bed again

It's too big for the room it's in

Watch your face and laugh just a little bit

Everybody knows that you're good at it

But nothing hurts like an answer phone

Drinking some, waking up alone! Maybe if I try just a little more

I can take myself from this dirty flow

And walk through buildings of elegance

Just like you are intelligent,

But still I fall from grace with this microphone

How to find yourself if you never roam

Certainly, I'm indebted, baby!.

Certainly, certainly, yeah!

I know my place but it don't know me

I know my place but it don't know me'Cause no one wants to hear that you're breaking up

It wasn't long ago we said, "start me up!"

Now all your dreaming' will have to wait

While you discern, you'll anticipate.

Play your forty five with this late at night

Open all the windows, turn out the light

Mysterious creatures will fill the room

My midnight show just put on for youMaybe if I try just a little more

I can take myself from this dirty flow

And walk through buildings of elegance

Just like you are intelligent,

But still I fall from grace with this microphone

How to find yourself if you never roam

Certainly, I'm indebted, baby!.

Certainly, certainly, yeah!

I'm going my way, yeah

You gonna, you gonna know me

I'm going my way, yeah

You're going, goingCold fame on my brain,

But it's okay,

'Cause I know it's the best for me!

Cold fame on my brain,

But it's okay,

Lord, I know it's the best for me!
Cold fame on my brain,
But it's okay,
'Cause I know it's the best for me!
Cold fame on my brain,
But it's okay,
Lord, I know it's the best for me!
