I Don't Have Anything

VAST

I stood on mountaintops That overlooked the world I can't find anything Except a void insideI went to places where I could forget your name I can't find anything Except a void inside I don't have anything Because I don't have you I don't have anythingWhat can I buy To make the sky turn blue again? Where can I go To feel like I'm alive again? Show me the places Where I can forget your name I can't find anything Except a void inside I don't have anything Because I don't have you I don't have anything I've been stripped of everything Except some flesh that bleeds And I've been robbed of everything Except a soul, except a soul that needs you, sweet youI don't have anything Because I don't have you I don't have anything
