Tomorrow

Sandie Shaw

Tomorrow 1. Tomorrow IÃ†ll see him, tomorrow heÃ†s arriving home, after being away quite some time. I remained obedient, thinking of him, loving him alone, how can I say I donÃ†t want him to be miÃ ..ne. He just loved me, I know itÃ†s true, I found that trust of someone new, and I donÃ†t like what I must do tomorrow. 2. Tomorrow thereÃ†ll be tears, I realize that he loved me so, and he really has been so good to me. IÃ†ve known him almost two years and now I must let him go, though IÃ†m sorry itÃ†s the way it must bÃ .Ã e. He just loved me, I know itÃ†s true, I found that trust of someone new, and I donÃ†t like what I must do tomorrow. Tomorrow I must tell him itÃ†s all over now. What else can I do, I donÃ†t love him no more. 3. Tomorrow IÃ†ll feel better when I tell him of what I must do, canÃ†t go on cheating him anymore. CouldnÃ†t write it in a letter telling him that our romance is through, though I donÃ†t love him, I respect him as before. He just loved me, I know itÃ†s true, I found that trust of someone new, and I donÃ†t like what I must do tomorrow. And I donÃ†t like what I must do tomorrow.
