Going Home

Luna

I've seen her face
In those scented magazinesAll is forgivin'
I love her still
And we're home, home
Goin' homeThe Chrysler building
Was talkin' to the empire state
The twin towers
Were talkin' to each otherSayin', "All is forgivin'
I love you still
And we're home, home
Goin' home"What she saw in him nobody knew
It's a mystery
What she saw in him nobody could tell
Now it's historyAll is forgivin'
I love her still
And we're home, home
Goin' homeAnd we're home, home
Goin' home
And we're home, home
Goin' home
