

Angel of Darkness

Mala Serpiente

Riding on a fiery wind out of the smoke and fire rising from the ashes now, up from the funeral pyre destiny has set me free, i broke free from my chains lord of death looks down on me, as i feed upon your pain on the road out of hell!

Hellish hoards are on the run the battle lines are drawn blood runs down the fiery blade the old king now is gone eyes slowly fade to black your death is my salvation upon your head i trace the sign and send you to damnation

on the road out of hell!

On the wings of death i ride to claim my dark domain the angel of darkness on my side i stand upon the slain keeper of the flames stand high woe to the mortal man as revenge is handed down, alas your soul is damned!
