

Sincerely

Nevertheless

Once again you compromised
There's no life in your hopeless eyes
But it's just like yesterday
If you listen to what they say And you feel hopeless
And you feel lost
And you feel hopeless
And you feel lost And you're tired of playing the fool
All your tears can form a pool of heartbreak and hopelessness
You lead this life like all the rest And you feel hopeless
And you feel lost
And you feel hopeless
And you feel lost Open your eyes, dear friend
See that this is not the end
'Cause there's a man before you lived
With the love and power to forgive
