At First Sight

The Stems

You're looking so beautiful
Standing in the light
I've waited for this night
For my whole lifeI reach to grab your hand
I take it into mine
Our hearts become numb
Our hearts have become oneAnd I'll wait for you
If our world's falling down
Crumbling to the groundAnd I'll wait for you
If our world's falling down
Crumbling to the groundWith this honor
On weak knees I stand
Strengthened by your handsAs the music starts to play
That look upon your face
I see what's in your eyes
You see what's inside mineWe see our life together
We feel it as we dance
There's rhythm in our love
It's rhythm from aboveAnd I'll wait for you
If our world's falling down
Crumbling to the groundWith this honor
On weak knees I stand
Strengthened by your handsWith this honor
On weak knees I stand
Strengthened by your handsWith this dance our life begins
With these steps love has no end
With this dance our life begins
And I'll wait, and I'll waitWith this honor
On weak knees I stand
Strengthened by your handsWith this honor
On weak knees I stand
Strengthened by your handsWith this honor
On weak knees I stand
Strengthened by your handsWith this honor
On weak knees I stand
Strengthened by your hands
[Incomprehensible]
Strengthened by your hands
