Sex and Reruns

Matt Duke

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Do you shake through the night?
Tucked under the covers tightly
There's monsters in the shadows and zombies in the street lightsAnd the sounds from the street
Like some terrible CACOPHONY
It cuts through the walls of your bedroom and haunts your dreamsBut don't you cry
I'd sing you a lullaby
But by and by it's a waste of time
Take a spoonful to settle your mind
And I wish you goodnightBlock out all your demons with white noise, pills, and Jesus
And when I get down I just turn off the lights
I find friends and lovers, some online sex and reruns
And when I get down I just turn off the light the light the lightsWhen you're lost and confused
But you're too proud to face the truth
Spend up all your money on a band-aid to cover the woundWhen you suck at life
But you're much too scared to die
Embrace the sweet indifference with your brothers and we'll march in time time timeBut why so stressed
Do you feel like the world's a mess
Well grab what you can from the medicine chest and all your worst fears suppressed
And just turn off the lightsBlock out all your demons with white noise, pills, and Jesus
And when I get down I just turn off the lights
I find friends and lovers, some online sex and reruns
And when I get down I just turn off the light the light the lightsBlock out all your demons with white noise, pills, and Jesus
And when I get down I just turn off the lights
I make friends and lovers, some online sex and reruns
And when I get down I just turn off the light the light the lights
Turn off the light the light the light
