

Superball

Helium

a glass eye I use to spy have little tiny teeth that tell a golden lie my feet are small, I'm not that tall I tell you the truth, but really not at all

I'm small like a superball, THROW me at the wall
I'm FRAGILE like an eggshell, I'm mad as hell

my teeth are gold, I'm not that old I would tell you the truth, but I'm not that bold hook me with your hand, my mouth is full of sand everything I say ends with and

I'm small like a SUPERBALL, throw me at the wall
I'm fragile like an eggshell, I'm MAD as hell
