Talk Is Cheap

Authority Zero

You talk and talk's so cheap
You're finally cashing in
With your words so sleek
The truth is wearing thin
You're coming to me
Please tell me this is a joke
I've heard you spitting lies
Since the first word you spokeYou talk and talk's so cheap
You're finally cashing in
With your words so sleek
The truth is wearing thin
You're coming to me
Please tell me this is a joke
I've heard you spitting lies
Since the first word you spokeSo ideas and stipulations put us right back. Applauds ring out for your performance as respect slowly draws
Your prominent passion for passing
Off all the problems you've caused
While taking on all of the pages
Of all of the truth as were robbedOver and over again sewn for a quick fix
Over and over resend recycle again
Struggle for something when you don't know the cause
Your prominent passion for passing
Of all of the truth that you've robbedWell here I am
I'm that fire in your eyes
Well here I am
The desire that you will not findWell here I am
Well I'm that fire in your eyes
Well here I am
So baby tell me no more liesYou talk and talk's so cheap
You're finally cashing in
With your words oh so sleek
The truth is wearing thin
You're coming to me
Please tell me this is a joke
I've heard you spitting lies
Since the first word you spokeYou talk and talk's so cheap
You're finally cashing in
With your words oh so sleek

The truth is wearing thin
You're coming to me
Please tell me this is a joke
I've heard you spitting lies
Since the first word you spokeSoWell here I am
I'm that fire in your eyes
Well here I am
The desire that you will not findWell here I am
Well I'm that fire in your eyes
Well here I am
So baby tell me no more liesWell here I am
I'm that fire in your eyes
Well here I am
The desire that you will not findWell here I am
Well I'm that fire in your eyes
Well here I am
So baby tell me no more lies
