Around the Bend

Tony Lucca

She said how did you become so hard to handle?
Holding on to something you can't see
You spray paint your love songs like a vandal
I said, I that's how I let my lovers get the best of meSee it's one more night,
Another drink to drown this stage-fright
I'll play one more song and I'll feel so much better
And I'll say thanks for coming, yeah, it's best that I get running
If she wants to come along, I might just let herYou see there's always another dream around the bend
If I can't play for keeps, I'll have to play pretend
Carry on for that next dream just around the bend,
Listening for the next song I can call my friend
As this old car careens,
I'm heading for those sweet dreams around the bendShe said it's time you started thinking 'bout forever,
Make an honest woman of that girl
I said it ain't like she said boy it's now or never,
Who am I to bring a child into this world?
To watch me play another show,
With twenty-five more towns to go,
While the encore keeps him up on past his bedtime
As my lady goes crazy just to keep from getting lazy
While she does her best to hold onto this heart of mineYou see there's always another dream around the bend
If I can't play for keeps, I guess I'll play pretend
And carry on till that next dream comes around the bend,
Listening for the love song that might bring me to the end
As this old car careens,
I'm heading for those sweet dreams around the bendYeah, to the bitter end, yeahYou see it's one more night
Another shot might make things all right
I'll play one more song and I'll be feeling fine
And I'll head for the back door,
Knowing I could have given so much more,
As someone whispers hey, you'll get em next time
There's always next timeCause there's always another dream around the bend
I never play for keeps, I only play pretend
Carry on for that next dream just around the bend,
Listening for a love song that might bring me to my endYeah there's always another dream around the bend
If I can't play for keeps, I guess I'll play pretend
As this old car careens,
I'm heading for those sweet dreams

On up around the bendOn up around the bend
