

In This Moment

Since October

Well you deserve only the best in me
Without you I've lost it all
I know I've taken for granted all these years
The things that seem so small And I'd give anything for one more
Just one more try
To notice the things I'm holding on to
Right now in my mind 'Cause I'm missing you tonight
Till I finally close my eyes
I am caught up in this moment, so caught up
'Cause you're right here by my side You always did bring out the best in me
That part of me has died
I know I couldn't even live my life
Without you but I try And to think that I'm all you wanted
Well you got all of me this time
And I'm ready to give this one more chance
As long as you're willing to try 'Cause I'm missing you tonight
Till I finally close my eyes
I am caught up in this moment, so caught up
'Cause you're right here by my side If I'm dreaming it's alright
Till I finally close my eyes
I am caught up in this moment, so caught up
'Cause you're right here by my side So where do we go from here
When will I know
Like tearing flesh still the scars remain
The difference is so clear And I'm breaking my fall when I'm risking it all
And my options are few when all I have is you and that's all
Yeah, I'm chasing the call but my patience is gone
Now all these memories are coming back to me 'Cause I'm missing you tonight
Till I finally close my eyes
I am caught up in this moment, so caught up
'Cause you're right here by my side If I'm dreaming it's alright
Till I finally close my eyes
I am caught up in this moment, so caught up
'Cause you're right here by my side
