Mock the Music

Children 18:3

Play me the empty space behind my eyes
They're yelling and screaming
But all I keep hearing is blah, blah, blah, blahThey're talking about the girls and boys, making too much noise
And the problems to solve them but it doesn't involve them
I thought about this too much and it's clear that it's unclear
Unless you believe them, we'll leave themAnd I'll do it, I won't do it, I won't do it at allIt's alright, it's a stereotype
And I don't mind if you use it
It's alright, you can say what you like
Just don't mock the musicBlame me, wow, wow, wow
But you're nothing impressive at all
I'm happy to smile, I'm happy to nod
If you're happy with making it upThey're talking about the girls and boys making too much noise
Through the playgrounds and backgrounds
And speeding through small towns
I thought about this today and it's strange
But it came to me as I was leaving, believingThat I won't do it, I won't do it, I won't do it at allIt's alright, it's a stereotype
And I don't mind if you use it
It's alright, you can say what you like
Just don't mock the musicThe ropes were all tangled
And the battle lines drawn
And I've marked off my space in the room, you can't crossI wanted to be different
But he's always been the same
And I can't, no I can't try and win this for youI won't do it, I won't do it, I won't do it at allIt's alright, it's a stereotype
And I don't mind if you use it
It's alright, you can say what you like
Just don't mock the musicYeah, yeah
I don't mind if you use it
It's alright, you can say what you like
Just don't mock the music, yeah
