

Hey

Mitchel Musso

I'm counting the days since I began to live without you
I'm covered in rain but it feels just like it's the sun
And it don't get me down, don't come around
You're better off leaving town, I'm fine here alone now without you
Hey! I'm screaming at you, hey! Don't care enough to
Write you a letter now that I'm doing better alone
Hey! I'm screaming at you, hey! Don't care enough to Write you a letter now that I'm doing better
Better off without you
You're stuck in a world and make believe that I can see it
I gave it a chance, she must be crazy not to leave
You're never gonna bring me down, don't come around
You're better off leaving town, I'm fine here alone now without you
Hey! I'm screaming at you, hey! Don't care
enough to
Write you a letter now that I'm doing better alone
Hey! I'm screaming at you, hey! Don't care enough to Write you a letter now that I'm doing better
Better off without you
Giving it up, now you take it away
All of my time, now get out of my way
Never been lost in anyone, it's me they want, without you I'm insane
So hear me now screaming out your name
(Screaming out, screaming out your name)
(Better off without you)
Hey! I'm screaming at you, hey! Don't care enough to Write you a letter now that I'm doing better alone
Hey! I'm screaming at you, hey! Don't care enough to Write you a letter now that I'm doing better
Better off without you
Better off without you
'Cause I'm better off without you I'm screaming at you, hey! Don't care enough to Write you a letter now that I'm doing better
Better off without you
