Amateur

Once Blue

For you I ascend
Into the sky
Under the roof
Stands the bed and I
For you, a wonderland
For me, a dump
There's an amateur inside you that I love . . .
For you the stars
Rub their eyes and stare
Under cover
Under repair
All the dots of all the colours
Couldn't keep me safe
Since you I've wondered when
I gave up
There's an amateur inside you that I love . . .
All the dots of all the colours
Couldn't keep me safe
Since you I've wondered when
I gave up
There's an amateur inside you
There's an amateur inside you
There's an amateur inside you that I love . . .
