Mad Man Moon

Genesis

Was it summer when the river ran dry Or was it just another dam When the evil of a snowflake in June Could still be a source of relief Oh, how I love you, I once cried long ago But I was the one who decided to go To search beyond the final crest Though I'd heard it said just birds could dwell so high So I pretended to have wings for my arms And took off in the air I flew to places which the clouds never see Too close to the deserts of sand Where a thousand mirages, the shepherds of lies Forced me to land and take a disguise I would welcome a horse's kick to send me back If I could find a horse not made of sand If this desert's all there'll ever be Then tell me what becomes of me, a fall of rain? That must have been another of your dreams A dream of mad man moon Hey, man, I'm the sandman And boy have I news for you They're gonna throw you in gaol And you know they can't fail 'Cause sand is thicker than blood But a prison in sand is a haven in hell For a gaol can give you a goal A goal can find you a role on a muddy pitch in Newcastle Where it rains so much, you can't wait for a touch Of sun and sand, sun and sand Within the valley of shadowless death They pray for thunderclouds and rain But to the multitude who stand in the rain Heaven is where the sun shines The grass will be greener till the stems turn to brown And thoughts will fly higher till the earth brings them down Forever caught in desert lands one has to learn To disbelieve the sea

If this desert's all there'll ever be

Then tell me what becomes of me, a fall of rain? That must have been another of your dreams A dream of mad man moon
