

Lisin' You

June Carter Cash

Free love is the goin' thing
So I took off my wedding ring
And embarked on my final fling
Of losin' youBorrowed love is awful cheap
    He was fun but I can't sleep
    I toss and turn and then I weep
I'm losin' youBut I'd like to take that man I made
    And choke him on the bed we laid
    'Cause he ain't worth the price I paid
    Of losin' youI searched my heart to see
    If I could catch you in a little lie
    And in some way justify
Lisin' youI thought love grew weak with age
    Oh ho, well I misread the gage
    You wrote the book, I turned the page
And I'm losin' youBut I'd like to take that man I made
    And choke him on the bed we laid
    'Cause he ain't worth the price I paid
    Of losin' youFree love is the goin' thing
    So I took off my wedding ring
    And embarked on my final fling
    Of losin' youBorrowed love is awful cheap
    He was fun but I can't sleep
    I toss and turn and then I weep
I'm losin' youBut I'd like to take that man I made
    And choke him on the bed we laid
    'Cause he ain't worth the price I paid of losin' you
    He ain't worth the price I paid of losin' you
