Delete Lola

Maxeen

it was the signs
on your face
that i never could see its was the fact
i forgot
some kind of anniversaryAt the phone you would wait
but i never would call
it's the thought that never counted
cause there's no thought at allDistress codes sent for a rescue to relieve me of the boredom that i'm feeling with youin a daydream i'd compute the first day we would meet and simply press deleteBecause i just don't care so give it a break
i just don't care
so i made a mistake
i just don't careand there's one thing to do
it's ture
i need to get ride of you
no matter what i try i never get through my random acts od kindness you'd just misconstruei guess it comes down to a lack of trust
a heart that used to work has since been covered with dustin the shadows of the year you know i never could tell if i had feelings for you or i was under some spelland now the only kiss i can justify is a kiss goodbyebecause i just don't care
i just don't care
so i made a mistake
it's ture
i need to get rid of you
