

You Hurt Me (remix)

Hooverphonic

I must have been blind adoring the blues
In everything lies a small kind of truth
But than again,
Just when I thought you were staying for good
You left for no reason, was that all you could
You're still a manIt's not what I want
It's not what I need
Nothing but lies and way too much heat
Just when I thought you were telling the truth
I caught you with her, oh you foolYou hurt me
When I've got so much more to give
You hurt me
When I've got so much more to giveWe live in denial, adoring what's new
In everything lies a small kind of blues
But than again,
Just when I thought you were leaving for good
You stayed for no reason although we were through
You're still a manIt's not what I want
It's not what I need
Nothing but lies and way too much heat
Just when I thought you were telling the truth
I caught you with her, oh you foolYou hurt me
When I've got so much more to give
You hurt me
When I've got so much more to giveBut then again,
It's not what I want
It's not what I need
Nothing but lies and way too much heat
Just when I thought you were telling the truth
I caught you with her, oh you foolYou hurt me
When I've got so much more to give
You hurt me
When I've got so much more to giveAn' everytime again,
You hurt me
When I've got so much more to giveEverytime again,
You hurt me
When I've got so much more to giveBut then again,
You hurt me
When I've got so much more to give
