Felt Through a Phone Line

36 Crazyfists

So we went after the crash
We stepped out alone
An undivided healing
That swallows us wholeThe air cuts like glass
And you taste like winter
And how long will you last? ForeverAnd congratulations
You've become what you wanted
Steppin' out of this car with that look in your eye
Knowin' that you've never looked so beautifulTelephone lines away
Death on the end and Im screaming
226 on the door
Asking to make out while watching the warSo we went after the crash
We stepped out alone
An undivided healing
That swallows usNothings like this exit
Pale white skin on memory
Nothings like this exit
Pale white skin on memoryAnd Ive got the proof to frame the way
As we danced, we bled across the floor
And that never endin' supply what we wished for
It took me 14 hours to get this sore
Knowin' that you've never looked so beautifulTelephone lines away
Death on the end and Im screaming
226 on the door
Asking to make out while watching the warSo we went after the crash
We stepped out alone
An undivided healing
That swallows usNothings like this exit
Pale white skin on memory
Nothings like this exit
Pale white skin on memory25 days and I still can't get this right
25 days and I still can't get this rightSo we went after the crash
We stepped out alone
An undivided healing
That swallows us(So we went)
Nothings like this exit
Pale white skin on memory
(So we went)
Nothings like this exit

Pale white skin on memoryTelephone lines away
Felt through a phone line
Telephone lines away
Felt through a phone line
