

Harlot Widow and the Virgin Bride

Tourniquet

See the harlot riding sinner scarlet
She's a city made of souls
To the Devil she will hold... to the endMadness
Drunken blindness...fallen! is her kingdomFuture people living out an ancient sin
Before they can win the wedding beginsQueen of ultra darkness harlot of hate
Because of your lust you'll never escape
The pride on your lips is sealing your fate... You just wait!You've boasted glory as your own
You kept the children from their homeNo more
Blind eyes
Say goodbye to all your lies
The chosen live again
Free from sin
New life withinBroken humans consecrated by the One they once degraded
Hateful whores transformed to virgins
Delivered from a way that scourged Him
They scourged HimVirgin bride the Holy blood justified
Your spiritual birth from out of His side
Now the marriage never dies... open your eyes
