

I'll Be OK

Limp Bizkit

I just read your letter it says that youll be gone for a while, Everything was gettin' better I guess I'm just a fool strung out. What to do? My life is through. Just wanna kill myself for you. I wonder, just how sympathetic you'll be. Youve come to take me under and I've forgotten all about me. What to do? My life is through, just wanna kill myself for you so tell me why you say goodbye so tell me why your f***** up my whole life yea f***** up my whole life. So I'm on my way. I leave today. If I get away it'll be ok, it'll be ok. Im looking out a window to a world thats taken you from me I'm felling so disguted how pathetic can I possibly be? What to do my life is through just wanna kill myself for you so tell me why you say goodbye so tell me why your f***** up my whole life, f***** up my whole life. So I'm on my way. I leave today. If I get away, it'll be ok it'll be ok. If theres a better place you can take me a better life you can give me whatever place I can start all over. Than I would never need what you gave me, and never need you to save me and never feel like this life is over, feel like this life is over. So I'm on my way. I leave today. If I can get away, It'll be ok, It'll be ok...
