

What Remains Of Me

Dixie Melody Boys

One day all they'll have is a faded photograph
To remind them of the man I used to be.
There'll be things that they recall
But I pray above it all
The love of Jesus is what remains of me.
It won't matter what I've earned or who I've known
It'll all be forgotten when I'm gone.
But if I can only leave just one memory
I pray the love of Jesus is what remains of me.
One day if they trace every step I took by faith
May it lead them to the cross of Calvary.
I just want to leave behind
A legacy so rich and fine
The love of Jesus is what remains of me.
It won't matter what I've earned or who I've known
It'll all be forgotten when I'm gone.
But if I can only leave just one memory
I pray the love of Jesus is what remains of me.
But if I can only leave just one memory
I pray the love of Jesus is what remains of me.

Lyrics Submitted by Darryl M. Cue

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>