

Right Back

Sublime

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Sleepin' by yourself at night can make you feel alone
Your girlfriend said so, I don' really know
It don't mean we've fucked around
That night last week when you left town And I was tweakin' by myself one night
That's when I wrote this tune
And I did not have no need
For that bed in my hotel room Sometimes right now since I've left the pen
Feels like I'm right back there again And sometimes I pray
And I'm waitin', I'm waitin' for some bright holiday, holiday
And I bought myself that gun, yeah
And I'm right back, right back where I'm from Sleepin' by yourself at night can make you feel alone
I've got a Maggie doll girlfriend, she's a little hoe
And it don't mean that I fuck around
I like to keep that higher ground, higher ground Sometimes I pray
And I'm waitin, waitin' for some bright holiday
And I've bought myself that gun, oh, yeah
And I'm right back, right back where I'm from Ooh, ooh, oh, don't tease me
Don't tease me Sometimes I pray
And I'm waitin, waitin' for some bright holiday, holiday, yeah
And I've bought myself that gun
And I'm right back, right back where I'm from
