

Partner in Crime

Ocean Alley

Won't you tell me I'm fine, won't you tell me I'm right, cause I'm a freight train and I'm running off my tracks again won't you tell me it's okay won't you tell me what to say won't you hold my hand when nobody else has got the time cause my bones feel weaker than my heart does strong and the music from my speakers help my mind move along so baby, won't you be my lady miss you like crazy I hope you'll be my
my partner in crime
and lately life is kinda hazy yeah but I need you now show me how to be me won't you be my candle light won't you lay me down tonight cause I love to make my dreams with you exist when I'm awake won't you tell me how you feel won't you make me.? cause its lonely here and im runnin out of things to say but my bones feel weaker than my heart does strong and the music from my speakers help my heart move along
I miss you like crazy
I hope you'll be my
my partner in crime
but I need you nowto show me how to be me baby wont you be my lady
I hope you'll be my
my partner in crime
so baby wont you be me lady

I hope you'll be my
and lady life is kinda hazy yeah but I need you now to show me how to be me
to show me how to be me
