

There's No 'I' in Time

TTNG

watching dust move
that dead skin, dancing was you now it's something new awake in wait floating away in the wake of your own fate break under your dead weight or persuade change what's there to choose between nothing and nothing there's you what have you to lose sing: once you die you were not alive terrify your lies fright out the zeitgeist
you are not | you weren't | and you will not be there's no good times when there's no history why be so morbid dread makes no sense you were born dead so live instead just admit it never happened sing: once we die we were not alive terrify our lies
fright out the zeitgeist
we are not | we weren't | and we will not be there's no bad times when there's no history
