Maha Maha

Lana Del Rey

Every time that you walk out on me
I regress back to the one that I came to see.
There's someone I have never talked about
I know that we both be dead if you found out.Every time you tell me that I'm wrong
I just can remember how to play along
There's something that I never told
I'm not really from this world
There's something I've been withholding
I'm not like every other girlLa la mahi mahi la la
La la mahi mahi la la
You are the man of my dreams I'm looking for
You are the man of my dreams I'm looking forSo if you begin
To think that my light might be supernatural
I'll have to say you're right
You right, mon cher, it is!
I come from a place
That your mind cannot even imagine.
Where we sing
Maha maha maha maha maha, maha,La la mahi mahi la la
La la mahi mahi la la
You are the man of my dreams I'm looking for
You are the man of my dreams I'm looking forWell we say maha maha maha
Oh maha, mahaI give my life for
I'm your devoted
I give my love, babe
I'm your devoted
Maha maha, maha maha
Maha maha, maha maha
