Welcome To The Bottom

Vertical Horizon

Welcome To The Bottom
Welcome home it's been a while,
We've been expecting you.
You tried to deny your family,
Oh, but we came through so. . .
Welcome.
Welcome.
Welcome to the bottom.
The water's gone and the grain is bad,
It's not exactly where you wanna be.
But we're the only true friends you ever had,
This company loves your misery so. . .
Welcome.
Welcome.
Welcome to the bottom.
Welcome.
Welcome.
Welcome to the bottom.
Welcome to the moment, to the highlight of your life.
Welcome to the horror, and there's nowhere you can hide.
Welcome to the bottom.
The acid burns and it takes it's toll,

But we all get used to it.
There's no give and take, it's just push and pull.
It only hurts for a bit so. . .
Welcome.
Welcome.
Welcome to the bottom.
Welcome.
Welcome.
Welcome to the bottom.
Welcome to the moment, to the highlight of your life.
Welcome to the horror, and there's nowhere you can hide.
Welcome to the bottom.
It's so endearing how you thought you could change.
We know you'll be happy, you just need someone to blame.
Welcome back, we're glad you know your place.
It's always there for you.

Welcome to the moment, to the highlight of your life.
Welcome to the horror, and there's nowhere you can hide.
Welcome to the moment, to the highlight of your life.
Welcome to the horror, and there's nowhere you can hide.
Welcome.
Welcome.
Welcome to the bottom.
