

I'm There

Skepta

[Intro]

What's my mother fucking name?

Skepta, Skepta, Skepta, Skepta, Skepta

Boy Better Know, Skepta

Yeah, Skepta, listen, yeah[Verse 1]

Put your hands in the air for the Boy Better Know managing director

Back to the front, left right and centre

Listen up close and please remember: my second name is "is the best", my first name Skepta

Undisputed microphone champion, ready for any contender

Girls love Boy Better Know t-shirts like they love La Senza

So if you're wearing a Boy Better Know tee, let me see

Prada, they ain't got nothing on me

Versace ain't got nothing on me

I'm big in the game, see Duppy on MTV Base

Now I've got a TV face

DJ Maximum on the CD change

Yeah, you dun know the MySpace

It's Boy Better Know all over the place[Hook x2]

Still I'm here, I'm there

[?] or [?], I'm there

My name's on the bill, catch me, I'm there

And if you wanna clash me, I'm there[Verse 2]

I'm never on a long ting, I'm never on a lay-lay

I spit a bar, man are like "mayday, mayday!"

I spit a lyric, it's pay day, no play play

These MCs better thank God for AJ

Boy Better Know endorsed my CD

I'm original, I don't Control-C

I only sound like me, that's why I don't wanna be the Forum's best MC cause Forum's best MC don't make no P

I'm known in the UK and overseas

Heathrow Airport know about me

Stanstead know my name, I don't wanna play your fastest MC game

I don't wanna play your skippiest MC game

But if you wanna clash me I'm there[Hook x2][Bridge]

Still, I'm about, trust me bruv

You'll see my face, in a funky dance, doing a funky dance

You know what I look like, you know what, fuck this --[Verse 3]

It's no introduction needed, I'm dangerous

I don't wanna [?], I'm famous

Next year, I'll be a baiders
Boy Better Know run this shit, ask the majors
Trust me, I'm gonna win Wiley
Fuck a snake and [?], these other MCs don't think like me
Buy out the bar or drink like me
I drop so much shit, they wish they could stink like me
Have Sidewinder on lock like me
Be losing a clash, that is not like me
I'm a stage show don, if you don't believe me, put the stage show on See me performing on the same stage Dizzee and Kano's on Nobody's ever played your song ever since it came out
These MCs have got bare mixtapes out, and they're still window shopping
I've got a new song, new album and a new single dropping
So when I drop my album, Halifax knows what's popping
I'm laughing straight to the bank with it
And I'm standing tall, wipe your Size 6, 7, 9s, Big Dada and Dirtee Stank with it
You know what I'm gone, I've got a flight to catch
