

Meantime Girl

Jaron and the Long Road to Love

On a Monday afternoon
I'm stopped at a light on the boulevard I'm looking 'round the faces in the other cars and there's a cute girl looking back at me the light's about to change I know this is a little strange but in the meantime she will be my girl
in the meantime
I promise her the world
in the meantime
I'm hers and she is mine I finally find the perfect girl and I am pressed for time
in the meantime
I turn on the radio just looking for a song and I drift away the light is still a ruby red as the music plays and I keep hoping she just looks my way she finally does and smiles at me and I want so bad to ask her please
in the meantime
will you be my girl
in the meantime
I promise you the world
in the meantime
I'm yours and you are mine ya I finally find the perfect girl and I am pressed for time
she pulls away there goes my girl but she made my day ya I'll see you in another lifetime but if you don't mind you don't mind in the meantime ya yeah you will be my girl
in the meantime

I promised you the world
in the meantime
be my meantime girl
be my meantime girl oh ooooooh be my meantime girl yeah
you know you wanna
