

Allow Me To Introduce Myself...Mr. Right

The White Tie Affair

There's gonna be a party tonight and do you think that your invited
I know that your excited gonna be a party tonight
wouldn't you think you'd known
If you I were excited

All these consequences keep running around your head but who knows what they'll say, when it all comes down to...
through the moonlight glow I know, heart racing fast as it can go our eyes meet instantly, you're on your way

Let it become (don't stop) your breathing,
let it become (don't stop) your breathing,
Let's get this party started cause...

She was thinking Mr Right I was thinking Right Now.
Contemplating, over it. Over and over again.
She was thinking Mr Right I was thinking Right Now.
Contemplating, over it. Over and over again.

We started dancing getting crazy on the dance floor
Come and dance with me
I'll show you what your looking for Gonna slow down, gonna go down gonna make it all night
if you're with me, i'll quickly make everything alright.

She was thinking Mr Right I was thinking Right Now.
Contemplating, over it. Over and over again.
She was thinking Mr Right I was thinking Right Now.
Contemplating, over it. Over and over again.

Ever since I laid my eyes on you,
There's been so much I've wanted to do,
Bring your body closer to mine...
There's gonna be a be a a party
Gonna be a be a a party tonight, tonight

Let's get this party started right

Dadadada, gonna rock the floor, gonna dance to the tempo
Dadadada, gonna rock the floor gonna dance

She was thinking Mr Right I was thinking Right Now.
Contemplating, over it and Over and over again.
She was thinking Mr Right I was thinking Right Now.
Contemplating, over it and Over and over again
She was thinking Mr. Right I was thinking Right Now.
