Already Young

The Whigs

Peter Pan break my fun
Stomp my feet cause I can't run
Chasing down the birthmarks of my dreams
Your shadow won't remind you
My shadow won't follow you if you fly
See you in twenty years is what I meanAnd I don't care what your old man thinks
I don't care what your old man thinks
I don't care what your old man thinks of me
'Cause I don't care, I'm already young
'Cause I don't care, I'm already young
'Cause I don't care, I'm already young
'Cause I don't careTicking clocks take my time
Stick it in places I can not find
The way to resurrect the prospects of my dreams
Your shadow won't remind you
My shadow won't follow you if you fly
See you in twenty years is what I mean
