

Soilborn

Killswitch Engage

Time will not stand still
Today is the day, the day of salvation
Living for more than just
A synthetic force fed existenceThis is my disposition
I will strive for the truthTime will not stand still
Today is the day, the day of salvation
Living for more than just
A synthetic force fed existenceThis is my disposition
I will strive for integrityTime will not stand still
We are the soilborn
We are the children
SoilbornWashed in blood because we are blind
We must not take this life for granted
In this everlasting thirst
To maintain vitalityThis is my disposition
I will strive for a rebirthWe are the soilborn
SoilbornToday is the day of salvation
Today is the day of salvation
[Incomprehensible]
