Tool

Buck-O-Nine

fast and clean
in his rhythm machine
he goes down to the beach
but little does he know the girls down there are out of his reachhe has a good time but drinks too much wine he's headed for the disaster of a lifetime
and now the guys
from the bad boy club are callin' out his namehe goes down to the liquor store to buy himself a beer
he parks his truck
with a ten inch lift
and stickers that sayd NO FEAR out of his truck he struts inside with his OAKLEY cool dudes shades he says his parents
bought me this truck
because in high school i got good gradeshe went back to check out a band at a local grunge band bar he saw a man who was screaming out loud
playing "e" chords on his guitar it's on the radio
it's on the video
it's in the stores
and all the tv showsand now the guys in the bad boy club
are calling his name
