

Diving in Deep

Sara Evans

You rest upon my soul with my like imprints on a wave
They just keep rolling in the ocean out into the night
You hold me in my dreams just like a mother holds a child
Wrapped in a blanket underneath a starry sky And I wanna know you

Until their are no secrets left to keep

If all is fair in love and war

The consequence I will ignore

'Cause this time I'm diving in deep

Yeah, pretty darling, I'm diving in deep

Well, you're the truth that I confess

The only song that I request

That makes my body move from side to side

So stop the clock and shoot the moon

'Cause every moment without you

In my opinion, is just a waist of time And I wanna know you

If all is fair in love and war

The consequence I will ignore

'Cause this time I'm diving in deep

Yeah, pretty darling, I'm diving in deep (Oh, oh, oh)

I'm past the point of turning back

(Oh, oh, oh)

Not thinking about the aftermath

(Oh, oh, oh)

I'm diving, I'm diving in, yeah

And I wanna know you

If all is fair in love and war

The consequence I will ignore

'Cause this time I'm diving in deep

Yeah, pretty darling, I'm diving in deep
