

Breaking the Silence

Breaking Benjamin

I'll keep my sights on waking dream
I gave my life to the vile be me
I am but one of a dying breed
Hate kills this world, but it won't kill me (Wake up! I break up the silence, I, I break up the silence)
I'm breaking the silence I'm falling apart for you
(Wake up! I break up the silence, I, I break up the silence)
I'm chasing the righteous becoming a part of you Fake plastic life, full of wasted years
The lost inside, diabolic fear
I feel no fault for the fault I feel
Hope drains this world, but it won't drain me (Wake up! I break up the silence, I, I break up the silence)
I'm breaking the silence I'm falling apart for you
(Wake up! I break up the silence, I, I break up the silence)
I'm chasing the righteous becoming a part of you
Run
(Wake up! I break up the silence, I, I break up the silence)
I'm breaking the silence I'm falling apart for you
(Wake up! I break up the silence, I, I break up the silence)
I'm chasing the righteous becoming a part of you I'm breaking the silence, I'm falling down with you
