

He Was A Steppenwolf

Boney M

Come on and listen to my tale
It's a strange and sorry tale that's gonna rock you
About a man, the drifting kind, let the story now unwind
It's gonna shock you
Some people said he was a ghost
Wouldn't wanna be his host or just to meet him
And if he ever came their way
There'd be sticks and stones, I'd say, that would grieve him
He was a Steppenwolf, a lost and lonely one
He was a Steppenwolf, forever on the run
He was a Steppenwolf with a forgotten past
He was a Steppenwolf, who found a love at last
He was a Steppenwolf
The girl he met was out-of-sight
Though she walked the streets at night, he didn't mind it
She seemed as happy as a song
And if anything was wrong, he didn't find it
They used to laugh and dance and drink
And not ever did he think of a payday
No matter where they ever were
Every day he spent with her was a hey-day
He was a Steppenwolf and not a handsome man

He was a Steppenwolf, who didn't know her plan
He was a Steppenwolf, not very bright at all
He was a Steppenwolf, just riding for a fall
He was a Steppenwolf
One day she said, "It's time you knew
That I started up with you for just one reason
You're gonna do just what I want
For there's something that I want
And I ain't teasing, my life is empty all around
Nothing that I ever found would fulfill me
So for a while I'll be with you
When I say that we're through, you must kill me"
He was a Steppenwolf, he cried, "It isn't fair"
He was a Steppenwolf, "You know how much I care"
He was a Steppenwolf, she said, "This is the deal"
He was a Steppenwolf, he saw this was for real

He was a Steppenwolf
He was a Steppenwolf, they spent a long last night
He was a Steppenwolf and with a smile she died
He was a Steppenwolf, a lost and lonely one
He was a Steppenwolf, forever on the run
He was a Steppenwolf
