

More to Life

Satanic Surfers

I was easily convinced and taught what to believe took me years to realize that i like many others had been deceived so i set off to find my own true dreams redefine my life my values tired of being just another cog in their machinery dont be scared of living there more to life than what they offer you dont sell your dreams reclaim control of your life take back what they stole from you.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>