The Hardest Moment

Mario

This is the hardest moment of my life
I never thought we would be sayin' goodbye
It ain't your fault, girl, it ain't mine
Unfortunately we're just victims of time, ohhGirl, you should go left and I will go right
We wasted enough time
But I think we should kiss, so we can take it with us
To play in our mindsAnd if you feel a tear falling on your lips
Then girl that would be mine
'Cause I'm a man that ain't afraid to cry
See, a man that ain't afraid to cry
Is a man that ain't afraid to dieWe could stay together, play make believe
Or hurt like hell for a while but one day be happy
There's somebody for you who'd do what I don't
And hopefully I'll meet the girl
That makes me wanna love againGirl, you should go left and I will go right
We wasted too much time
But I think we should kiss, so we can take it with us
To play in our mindsAnd if you feel a tear falling on your lips
Then girl that would be mine
See, I'm a man that ain't afraid to cry
See, a man that ain't afraid to cry
Is a man that ain't afraid to dieAnd I'm cryin', baby
I don't care who's watchin', baby
I'm cryin'
Girl, I can't change the pastGirl, you should go left and I will go right
We wasted too much time
But I think we should kiss, so we can take it with us
To play in our mindsAnd if you feel a tear falling on your lips
Then girl that would be mine
See, I'm a man that ain't afraid to cry
See, a man that ain't afraid to cry
Is a man that ain't afraid to die
