

I Win, You Lose

Home Grown

To the point of no return, you're shattered like a mirror
Can you last?
Standing on the over pass thoughts of getting clearer
This is your last, your last defeat But you've got it all wrong
(You've got it all wrong)
Because you waited too long
Your last defeat We have to move on but you can't carry on
You want me to know
(That you're on your own) You've got me all wrong, I don't care if you're lost
I want you to know
(That we're all alone) Threaten me with suicide, desperate for attention
This is your night
Don't want to compromise, your dying need for attention
This is your last, your last defeat But you've got it all wrong
(You've got it all wrong)
Because you waited too long
Your last defeat We have to move on but you can't carry on
You want me to know
(That you're on your own) You've got me all wrong, I don't care if you're lost
I want you to know
(That we're all alone) Sign of relief, you're over me
And ambulance is on its way
Your disbelief that makes you breathe
Will be washed away when you awake Your last defeat
Your last defeat
Your last defeat We have to move on but you can't carry on
You want me to know
(That you're on your own) You've got me all wrong, I don't care if you're lost
I want you to know
(That we're all alone) We have to move on but you can't carry on
You want me to know
(That you're on your own) You've got me all wrong, I don't care if you're lost
I want you to know
(That we're all alone)
