

Through the Fire (feat. Scarface)

Jon B.

So down here on the ground people sacrifice just to try to get by
It's hard to get past being caught up in the thoughts
Of the flying highGone off that girl, everybody's chasing after her all of the time
Seems like Erika Kane, she done got up in the game
And have ya scared to tryYou may not know it right now, nothings impossible
And when you try to push along, it seems to far to go
And the way it goes down, seems like the end of the road
But it's not, the fire's gettin' hot, hot, hotYou can go on right now, search deep inside
You're getting strong right now, I'm willing to testify
You've already won the fight, just stay down and ride
'Cuz we all gotta walk through the fireI walk the block running up the streets looking for the way out
Don't nobody know what I'm running from
Everything is spinning, feel like my world is burning
And I don't know what to doIf I put it all on you to get me where I need to be
Could you really comfort me
There's so much pain that I seeYou may not know it right now, nothings impossible
And when you try to push along, it seems to far to go
And the way it goes down, seems like the end of the road
But it's not, the fire's gettin' hot, hot, hotYou can go on right now, search deep inside
You're getting strong right now, I'm willing to testify
You've already won the fight, just stay down and ride
'Cuz we all gotta walk through the fireOh, now what a tangled web I've wove
Lost inside a maze I've made, misled my soul
I often sit down and pray but I can't 'cause I'm froze
Besides, Heavens to far away so I pave my noseMy pains unfold, whispering words to me that remain unspoken
Though some pictures tell a story, must remain untold
It's the same old song Aretha's sanging to me Lord and I can't go on My eyes are blood shot, my tears run down and I cry 'til I can't stopMy fears are in war now with my heart
And I'm shell shocked
Trapped in mistakes now
You want me to bail in but I want me the hell outI make you to feel bad but you making making me feel weak
I do you to hide you but you making me hide me
Every right I make was left so I'm staggered and gun shy
Addicted, I stand still 'cause she's making feel I'mI'm in the world alone, trying to get back home
Please come and rescue me, someone's in desperate need
Trying to shake the pain so I can breathe again
Somebody pray for me so I can finally seeYou may not know it right now, nothings impossible
And when you try to push along, it seems to far to go
And the way it goes down, seems like the end of the road

But it's not, the fire's gettin' hot, hot, hot
You can go on right now, search deep inside
You're getting strong right now, I'm willing to testify
You've already won the fight, just stay down and ride
'Cuz we all gotta walk through the fire
You may not know it right now, nothings impossible
And when you try to push along, it seems to far to go
And the way it goes down, seems like the end of the road
But it's not, the fire's gettin' hot, hot, hot
You can go on right now, search deep inside
You're getting strong right now, I'm willing to testify
You've already won the fight, just stay down and ride
'Cuz we all gotta walk through the fire
