Sunless Dawn

Naglfar

Hear the howlings in the night I'm one with it's might Enchanted by the calling cries
As I gaze into the sombre skies Awaiting the shining, the fire neverseen
Waiting for the darkened path which'll lead me straight to the one who dance in my dreams In surrounding flames I must be wrapped Wolves run by my side
As I walk towards eternity In hate they'll gather with my shadows as the moon arise
A scent of twilight
Into fading woods I march I glimmer a shyness in the red
In eternal dreams I drown...
As the children of Fenris sang their fullmoon serenade I made love to the midnight winds
The forest embraced me with it's impurity In ecstasy my tears fell like autumn silver rain
Now I stand above the human race
I've solved it all, the mystery of night
It's revealed to me
With a smile I see These stars (unseen) formalion that breeds my sunless dawn
