

Riding Bike

Pietro Cesaro

Sittin'™ on a hillside in a wonderful day no time for worries 'cause you wanna be happy you take your bike to enjoy yourself your hair against the wind in the downhill no time for worries with this blue sky and sunshine the road is hard, but the uphill is worse you take it easy and you hate to be in a hurry not like the cars that you meet you like to be free and you feel free - you like to be free riding bike, riding bike, riding bike!

the road is hard, but the uphill is worse
no matter the dues to be paid...no matter no matter if you miss your job...no matter no matter if the future is gray...no matter you like to be free and you feel free

riding bike
you like to be free and you feel free riding bike

finale!riding bike, riding bike, riding bike!
