

Another Day

The Bunny The Bear

Another day
Another prayer to reach one ear
Another torn up photograph
Wrapped tight in flames
I've built my lies on promises
I'll never make...
I'm caught up looking for some reason

Chorus: (x2)

We sail the sea together
Searching for a light
We sail through stormy weather
Well that depends on you

Another day
Another prayer it sounds severe to say "I'm saved"
Another torn up photograph, I watched it fade
I never knew the weight would cause my heart to break
When living isn't half as easy

Chorus: (x2)

We sail the sea together
Searching for a light
We sail through stormy weather
Well that depends on you

Another day
Another broken home I've got myself to blame
I never knew the weight would cause my heart to break
Cause my heart to break
Cause my heart to break
Cause my heart to break

We sail the sea together
Searching for a light
We sail the sea together

Chorus: (x4)

We sail the sea together
Searching for a light
We sail through stormy weather
Well that depends on you

We sail the sea together
Together
