An Animal

Blood Red Shoes

Keep me out of this uniform,
I don't know what I'm wearing it for,
Caught like a spring I'm ready to explode,
Yeah I'm an animal that can't be controlled.Just hear me out,
Or set me off....So, how does it feel,
to reveal what you already know?
Fire in your eyes,
Standing on your own,
No one ever wants to be alone.I see you there no hair out of place,
I see that fucking look on your face,
I'll wipe it off of you one of these days,
Counting the hours to my escape.Hear me out,
Or set me off...So, how does it feel,
to reveal what you already know?
Just because it's me,
You can never see,
Someday it will come to you.So, how does it feel,
to reveal what you already know?
Fire in your eyes,
Standing on your own,
No one ever wants to be alone.So, how does it feel,
to reveal what you already know?
Just because it's me,
You can never see,
Someday it will come to you.
