

Finally Home

Bryan White

FINALLY HOME

BY BRYAN WHITE Everytime I said a prayer,

It's like it got lost up there...

Floating on a cloud somewhere.

Gone gone gone gone... Never hearin' nothin' back,

Faith can get lost like that

Out there alone But You...

You were right there waiting with your arms wide open...

You held me close and I feel like I belong...

Now my heart is finally home...

Now my heart is finally home...

Now I'm dreamin' wide awake...

I feel safe enough to make mistakes

Chasin' these fears away

Til they're

Gone gone gone gone I thank God that I found you...

Knowing everything I'm going through

I'm not alone But You...

You were right there waiting with your arms wide open...

You held me close and I feel like I belong...

Now my heart is finally home...

Now my heart is finally home... Every word you're sayin' is sweeter than an amen...

Everything's gonna be ok,

'Cause at the end of every day

you're right there waiting with your arms wide open You hold me close and I feel like I belong

Now my heart is finally home...

Now my heart is finally home...
