Pipeline Trash

Cody Davis

Dont tell my momma I lay pipe she thinks that i play the piano in a whore house down on main street she dont know I'm on the road im pipeline trash it's all I've ever done and ever known I lay the mile by day and foot by night and call the road my home seven days a week out here just burnin in the sun most folks havent been the places I've been or done the things ive done sure you make a lot of money with your college degree but I'm pipeline trash and I'm proud of it and that's all I'll ever be been in seven different states this year and it's only July chasin that dollar money is always on my mind I might be a high school drop out but I make 3 grand a week laying pipe slinging dirt and tryin to beat the heat seven days a week out here just burnin in the sun most folks haven't been the places I've been or done the things I've done sure you make a lot of money with your college degree but I'm pipeline trash and proud of it and that's all I'll ever be some folks might look down on me for the lifestyle that I chose I got a gypsy heart and I love to leave and head on down the road layin pipe in Arkansas or maybe Tennessee I'm pipeline trash and proud of it and that's all I'll ever be seven days a week out here just burnin in the sun most folks haven't been the places I've been or done half the things I've done sure you make a lot of money with your college degree but I'm pipeline trash and proud of it and that's all I'll ever be

Lyrics Submitted by Kyle potter

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/