Already Yours.

Bahamas

Is it really that much sweeter
On the other end of that receiver?
There's no need to convert a believer
I'm already yours
I'm already yours

Well I ain't that special someone
You should spend a night with a fun one
Someone who mates to become one
I'm already yours
I'm already yours

Well I always said don't mind me
But your love always seems to find me
It's always creeping up behind me
I was never yours
I was never yours
